The most exciting day of your life deserves the best. Whatever the size of your wedding – be it an intimate affair or a more formal celebration - Darling & Wild offers an experienced and professional service from start to finish.

Starting with an initial consultation, there is of course no obligation, simply a chance to discuss the choices available, the subtle variations in colour and texture of different flower choices and ultimately the overall feel for the day.

We discuss the location, dress style and bridal party outfits to ensure the flowers perfectly fit the occasion.

Having trained in Sydney and with London florist Paula Pryke, Lara set up Darling & Wild in 2004, quickly building a reputation for her quality and unique style, securing clients such as Le Petit Blanc, Monsoon and working with Granada Productions on a six week television shoot. The quality, value and presentation of Lara's work has engendered a high degree of customer loyalty. "Quite simply, I'm passionate about flowers, from the humble to the exotic" she says, "I have been helping brides select their wedding flowers for six years, and I still get excited about each one!" Lara only accepts one wedding per weekend in order to maintain her high standards.

What our customers have said:

'The flowers were fantastic and perfect'

Sophie 2007

We wanted to write and say thank you for all your help with our buttonholes, corsages and gift bouquets. We had such an amazing day and the flowers were beautiful

Jeremy 2007

'Lara, the flowers were beautiful and lasted so well, I will definitely recommend you!'
